National Association of State Treasurers Elects Incoming Executive Leaders

(Washington, DC, October 3, 2023) - Following a vote at the Annual Meeting of the National Association of State Treasurers this week in Las Vegas, the following State Treasurers were elected to fill the executive positions of leadership with the association beginning January 1, 2024.

President

Hon. Michael Frerichs
State of Illinois

"I'm honored to be elected President of the National Association of State Treasurers, starting January 1, 2024. Thank you to Treasurer Josh Haeder of South Dakota for his leadership of NAST during 2023. As President of NAST, I look forward to continuing to collaborate with state treasurers from across the nation on public finance matters and helping citizens build a better tomorrow."

Senior Vice President

Hon. Thomas Beadle
State of North Dakota

"I'm honored to serve alongside my fellow treasurers and grateful for their trust in electing me Vice President of the National Association for 2024. Treasurers across the country play a vital role in making sure state governments function with efficiency and transparency, and the National Association of State Treasurers helps provide the tools and training to allow our states to operate at their best."

Secretary-Treasurer

Hon. Rachael Eubanks
State of Michigan

"NAST is a very important resource for State Treasurers in terms of advocacy, learning and strengthening Treasuries across the country. It's an honor to be selected from amongst my peers to serve in a leadership position at a critical time to meet these objectives."

The following State Treasurers will serve one-year terms on the NAST Executive Committee representing specific regions around the country:

Eastern Vice President

Hon. Erick Russell
State of Connecticut

Midwestern Vice President

Hon. Daniel Elliott
State of Indiana

Southern Vice President

Hon. Young Boozer
State of Alabama

Western Vice President

Hon. Fiona Ma
State of California

NAST is thankful for the leadership of these individuals and their dedication to the association. Their term will begin on January 1, 2024 and run through the end of the year. If you have any questions or follow up requests, please contact Catherine Seat at catherine@statetreasure.org.

About National Association of State Treasurers

The National Association of State Treasurers provides advocacy and support that enables member states to pursue and administer sound financial policies and programs benefiting the citizens of the nation. Membership is composed of all state treasurers or state finance officials with comparable responsibilities from the United States, its commonwealths, territories, and the District of Columbia as well as their staff. The private sector is represented through the Corporate Affiliate Program that was established to build professional relationships and foster cooperation between the public and private sectors. The association serves its members through educational conferences and webinars, a variety of working groups, policy advocacy, and publications that provide information about developments in public finance.
